

READY FOR THE GRAND CIRCUIT MEET TODAY. Scores of the best racers in the country arrived at Belmont Park yesterday. In the picture is the well-known horseman, George Gregory, with Donna Dillon and Wrack.

PHILADELPHIA POLES IN DEMONSTRATION. Held parade and mass-meeting yesterday as part of nation-wide effort to enlist United States aid for war-ridden Poland. Many women were in the procession. At the right Miss Regina Luzzak is tagging Stanley Kowalezyk, who served during the world war with American forces.

ENJOYING THE TENNIS matches at Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Carter Leidy, of this city.

RUSSIANS BEING TAUGHT MODERN FARMING BY Y. M. C. A. Men who have expressed a willingness to return to Russia when war ceases, to assist in the reconstruction of their country, are being instructed how to operate and repair tractors among other up-to-the-minute farming schemes.

SOCIETY HELPS AT CAPE MAY CHURCH FAIR. The event held on Saturday by the Church of the Advocate proved to be a huge success. Among those who assisted are Mrs. Arthington Gilpin, treasurer; Mrs. Felix du Pont, chairman, and Mrs. Joseph Harrison, an aide. Left to right, Miss Ellen Arton is having her fortune told by Mrs. A. B. Court.

DIGGING IN ATLANTIC CITY SAND. The lad is Horace Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer L. Jones, of Conshohocken.

IN OUTDOOR PLAY AT CHESTER SPRINGS. A cast made up of students of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts gave a spectacular play on Saturday. (Left to right) Miss Isabella Vaughn, Miss Joy Brooke, Miss Elsie Mills, Albert V. Greene, Joseph Mielzimer and Miss Georgina Brown Harbison.

THE BABY ENJOYED IT. Leonard Jones and mother at the Sons and Daughters of Liberty outing in Hunting Park.

JOCK HUTCHISON, the Scotch golfer, who tied with three others for second place in the National Open Golf Championship.

PROHIBITION CANDIDATES. Dr. Aaron Watkins (right) and Leigh Calvin, candidates for President and Vice President, meet at Germantown, Ohio.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

SEWING FIELDS' GLOVES at the A. J. Reach Co. factory, Tulip and Palmer streets. Miss Claire Swetzer, 1603 East Hewson street, is the operator.

MISS MARTHA A. CHICKERING, Piedmont, Calif., who is in charge of the American Y. W. C. A. work at Warsaw, Poland.

HAVING A BIG TIME. T. Garrett Allen, riding around on the shoulder of Albert Shertenlieb, a Cape May life guard.

MAY NOT ACCEPT. General Weygand, of France, has been offered the high command of Poland's forces against the Soviet armistice.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS JEANNE ROBERTS 3006 North Twenty-sixth street, Philadelphia.